HAWLEY'S

SOLIDIFIED DENTAL CREAM

FOR CLEANSING, WHITENING AND SERVING THE TEETH!

THIS article is prepared with the greatest care upon scientific principles, and warranted not to contain anything in the slightest degree deleterious to the teeth or gums. Some of our most eminent Dental Surgeons have given their sanction to, and cheerfully recommend it as a preparation of superior quality for cleansing, whitening and preserving the TEETH. It cleans them readily, rendering them beautifully white and pearly, without the slightest injury to the enamel. It is healing to the gums where they are ulcerated and sore. It is also an excellent disinfectant for old decayed teeth, which are often exceedingly offensive. It gives a rich and creamy taste to the mouth, cleansing it thoroughly, and imparting a delightful fragrance to the breath.

Prepared only by A. HAWLEY & CO., N. W. Cor. 10th, and Lombard Sts., Philadelphia.

And sold by all Druggists. Price 38 cents.

TESTIMONIALS.

The following opinion of Dr. White, as to the high esteem in which he holds the Dental Cream, must be sufficient evidence of its value; to quote other testimonials in detail is needless, contenting ourselves by simply giving the names and addresses of persons who speak of its excellence for the teeth.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15, 1863.

Having carefully examined A. Hawley's "Solidified Dental Cream," I hereby cheerfully recommend it to the public generally. It is an excellent preparation for cleansing and preserving the teeth, and can be used by all persons with the utmost confidence, as its properties are perfectly harmless. Besides preserving the teeth, it promotes a healthy action to the gums, and imparts a pleasantness to the breath.

The One Thing Needful.

PHYSICIANS, with a unanimity that is truly remarkable, now recommend to their patients the use of DR. HOOGLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, as a preventive against all sorts of weakness. They give tone to the system, by purifying the blood, and invigorating the digestive apparatus. Mothers who are nursing and old men find them invaluable. They should be introduced into our hospitals, and if they were more generally used among our soldiers, all camp diseases would disappear. These Bitters have been before the public over fifteen years, and their popularity is still on the increase. Their reputation is known in every corner upon the globe, and in fact they are more used than all others. We do not urge any one to take them, but we can imagine that no benefit will be derived therefrom, but this we do know, that those who have used them, will not be without them for the world.

THE ADAMS SENTINEL

GETTYSBURG:

Tuesday Evening, Jan. 10, 1865.

Wood.

We want some dry Hickory Wood very much, and would thank some of our friends to let us have a few cords as soon as possible.

List of Jurors.

Through inadvertence, the list of Jurors for the January Court was improperly headed for the November Court. Our readers will notice this.

The thermometer has indicated only 3 or 4 above zero here for two or three days. As we write this, the weather has moderated. Rain and sleet all last night.

JAMES H. FARNSTOCK has sold his fine residence on the corner of East Middle and Baltimore streets, to Maj. E. G. FARNSTOCK for $5,000 cash.

The Rev. Jacob Fry, pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Carlisle, has accepted a call from the Trinity Church of Reading, Pa.

John Shriver, of Freedom township, was arrested, and lodged in jail, on Monday last, for stealing Mr. Sherry's sleigh. He painted the sleigh black immediately after stealing it.

Exhibitions were given by the Methodist Sabbath School, on Thursday and Friday evenings, for the benefit of the library. The church was crowded on both occasions, and the exercises gave high satisfaction.

Lieut. James Pitt, of McConnellsburg, has resigned his position as clerk in the office of the Pennsylvania State Agency at Washington, and accepted of the appointment of Superintendent of the Caledonia Iron Works of Mr. Stevens.

Robert W. Coleman, Esq., of Cornwall, Lebanon county, died in New York, on the 20th ult., in the 42d year of his age. He was the eldest son of the late Thomas Bird Coleman, who was proprietor of the Cornwall Iron Ore Banks, near Lebanon, the Cornwall and Colebrook Furnaces in that county, and the Speedwell Furnace in York county. This immense estate passed into the hands of Robert W., just deceased, who was one of the most extensive iron manufacturers in the country. He was a graduate of West Point. He was a very generous man, and disposed his charities all around. One of his acts was the presentation, a few weeks ago, of 100 tons of coal to the poor of the borough of Lebanon.

A Big Hunt.—Mr. G. CORNELIUS HARTZELL, of Highland township, one day last week, captured nine full grown crows at one haul. He tracked them to a large hollow tree where the whole family had evidently taken up winter quarters.

We learn that the Caledonia Iron Works, belonging to the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, are now owned and carried on by Ahl & Stevens—the Messrs. Ahl, of Newville, having purchased one half interest in the works. We have not learned the amount paid by the new partners. It is a very valuable property, and will be pushed with great energy.

U. S. Christian Commission.

The Committee at Gettysburg acknowledge the receipt per Rev. JACOB ZIEGLER, of collection in the Ger. Ref. Church of Andoverville, $40 00.

Of which from Philip Deemer $20 00, Amount previously acknowledged, $624 85.

Total $664 85.

Also, from the citizens of Gettysburg, a New Year's Gift of 150 volumes, for the Soldiers' Library.

H. G. McGREARY, Chairman.

A very serious collision occurred on the Northern Central Railway, on Saturday morning last, about two miles south of York, at Hyde Station, between the Pittsburgh Express train and a local freight train. The two engines collided with a terrible crash, and were completely locked together. The baggage and mail cars sustained but little damage. Thomas Grubbs, (baggage master), and two soldiers, were killed, and W. H. Gould, conductor of the Express train, W. G. Holbrook and Robert Lamb, two of Adams' Express messengers, and a large number of others, were very much injured. The store in the baggage car communicated fire to the mail pouches, some of which, with their contents, were entirely consumed, and the balance was in a horrid condition.

There has been a great detention of trains on the Baltimore and Philadelphia Railroad, on account of the jamming in the cars on the Susquehanna. They are now resuming travel.

At the battle of Franklin, Tenn., the Missouri Brigade went into the fight 688 strong, and had 109 killed, 242 wounded and 96 captured, making a loss of 447.

Gen. Cockeril was wounded three times, but not seriously. Col. Gates was also wounded. Col. Garland and Maj. Parker, with a long list of captains and lieutenants, were among the killed.

Gov. Curtin, on Monday week, issued his proclamation, declaring that Samuel J. Randall, Charles O'Neil, Leonard Myers, William D. Kelley, M. Russell Thayer, B. Markley Boyer, John M. Broomall, Sydneyham K. Aucona, Thaddeus Stevens, Myer Strouse, Philip Johnson, Ohas. Deason, Ulysses Mercur, George F. Miller, Adam J. Glossberger, Abraham A. Barker, Stephen F. Wilson, Glenn W. Scofield, Charles F. Culver, John L. Dawson, J. K. Morehead, Thomas Williams and George V. Lawrence, have been returned as representatives in the Congress of the United States, for the term of two years, to commence from and after the fourth day of March next.

In reference to the Sixteenth District, the proclamation reads: "And I do further declare that no such returns of the election in the Sixteenth District have been sent to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, as would, under the Act of Assembly of 2d July, 1839, authorize me to proclaim the name of any person as having been duly elected a member of the House of Representatives of the United States, for that district."

A terrible accident occurred at Baltimore on Friday last to the workmen engaged in removing the buildings for the widening of Holliday street, between Fayette and Baltimore. One of the buildings which had been carefully overloaded with bricks fell, carrying seven men down with the ruins. Three were killed, and the other four injured.

Secretary Fessenden has been nominated for the reelection to the United Senate by the caucus of Union members of the Maine Legislature. Of course this foreshadows his resignation of the Secretaryship of the Treasury. He will, without doubt, be elected.

C. Milton Allen, cashier in Philadelphia Custom House, has had a preliminary hearing on the charge of being implicated in the recent robbery of twenty thousand dollars from the vaults of that institution. He was committed for trial in default of bail.

The season of the year has come when fire is most frequent, and it becomes everybody, for their own safety and of their neighbors, to use great caution to avoid them. A single spark of fire is shed out in a wooden vessel may lay waste a block of buildings; a coal may snap out from a hole in the stove, a fire may kindle from a defective chimney, with the same result. If you do not want to be turned out shelterless one of these cold nights, or lose your store and goods, be careful of fire!
